WOMBAT REGIONAL ARTS NETWORK Inc.

Wombat is a community group, active within the Moorabool Shire and surrounds. Promoting broad participation in creative arts, crafts and culture.

Some of our recent displays:

- Ballan Autumn Festival street decorations,
Christmas in Ballan
- 'Birds in Ballan' events and street decorations
Winterknits 2020 & 2019
Blacknite Blacklite 2017 & 2018

Wombat oversees a range of local groups:

- The Ballan & District Artists Collective at The Ballan Arts Space
- MAGnet (Moorabool Arts Group Network),
- A Fibre Arts Group
- A Pottery Group

*Membership does not include material costs, outings, entry fees, exhibitions fees etc.

OUR VISION IS...

- That artistic and cultural expression is essential for the development of healthy communities.
- Creative activities will promote participation in and appreciation of the arts and culture across the region.
- By celebrating individuality and respecting differences broad, adventurous targets will be achieved.

OUR AIMS ARE...

- To facilitate and share arts information to individuals and groups.
- To nurture and enhance community participation in creative arts related fun activities.
- To support and connect local creatives.

Benefits of being a member

- Receive information and invitations to events and projects.
- Membership in Wombats gives you membership to all official groups.
- Members can participate in workshops and have first choice to book a place at members discounted price.
- Membership gives the opportunity to connect with a network of creative individuals, share knowledge, skills and opinions.
